AAOMS centennial kicks off a landmark year for Foundation

At the conclusion of the first year of our Strategic Alliance with AAOMS, the benefits of this partnership were already apparent. By utilizing some key AAOMS administrative resources, we have been able to focus our attention and resources on programs, fundraising, communications and donor stewardship. A new Strategic Plan approved in January outlined an ambitious new trajectory for the Foundation just in time for AAOMS's centennial celebration.

Our most visible (and measurable) goal for AAOMS's centennial year was to raise $1 million in new gifts to our Annual Fund by Dec. 31. Fittingly, it was a gift from 2018-19 AAOMS President Dr. A. Thomas Indresano and his wife, Rita, that pushed our fundraising past the $1 million mark. The Centennial Tree – whose gold, silver and bronze leaves recognize gifts of $10,000, $5,000 and $2,500 – proved a powerful incentive to generosity. IAOMS and its Foundation, ABOMS, ACOMS, the Canadian Association of OMS and 36 state and regional OMS societies gave generously, as did a host of individual donors whose gifts ranged from $5 to $10,000.

The OMS Foundation Alliance enthusiastically embraced our new Global Initiative for Volunteerism and Education (GIVE) program, raising nearly $15,000 during the AAOMS Annual Meeting to support GIVE in 2019. We are grateful to the leadership (past and present) of the Alliance for its commitment to fundraising for this worthy program. With support from OMSNIC, the Alliance also hosted nine resident spouses at its 2018 Annual Meeting social events, providing $1,000 stipends to ease the financial burden of traveling to Chicago.

GIVE was just one beneficiary of a generous gift-match challenge from AAOMS, whose pledge to double every gift made at the Annual Meeting up to a total of $50,000 inspired an outpouring of generosity that surpassed our fundraising goal by nearly 50 percent.

Though the Centennial Tree often stole the spotlight, our commitment to facilitating the discovery of new knowledge and supporting educational opportunities for the OMS specialty is always front of mind.

Kathy A. Banks, DMD
OMS Foundation Chair

Our Board approved $603,500 in 2018 to help fund three Research Support Grants, two Faculty Educator Development Awards (FEDA) and provide support for the 2019 Resident Transitions into Practice and CSIOMS conferences. In addition, $20,000 per year was allocated to support the development of the Surgical Council on Resident Education (SCORE) in 2018-20. Five GIVE stipends and nine Norma L. Kelly Resident Spouse Scholarships were funded, along with 12 travel scholarships for residents attending the 2019 CSIOMS.

It has been a gratifying year, and we are just getting started. As our resources grow, so will our programs portfolio. Our challenge in 2019 will be to build upon the momentum we generated in 2018, and we have added a seat to our director's table to help handle the workload. We are pleased to welcome Drs. Brett Ferguson, Dale Misiek and Thomas Burk, our incoming ROAAOMS liaison, to our Board, even as we bid goodbye to Drs. Thomas Dodson, Eric Geist and Stephanie Zastrow. Their contributions during this transformative year were substantial, and we could not have come this far without them.

Looking ahead, I ask for your confidence and continued support to ensure that research and education remain the hallmarks of AAOMS's second century. We owe debt of gratitude to those who walked ahead of us. Let us not overlook our obligation to extend a hand to those who follow in our footsteps.

Thank you for joining us in this important work!

Strategic Plan Progress Report

The OMS Foundation Board identified five priority objectives for the Foundation in January 2018. A three-year Strategic Plan was constructed with these objectives at its core. Significant progress has been noted in every category:

- Establish a clinical research grant program – The Foundation expects to begin reviewing proposals for its new Clinical Research Support Grant during the 2020 review cycle.
- Create opportunities for OMSs to engage in service to underserved communities – The Global Initiative for Volunteerism and Education (GIVE) program awarded five $2,500 travel stipends in 2018 to residents traveling internationally with experienced OMSs to deliver humanitarian healthcare to underserved communities.
- Communicate more efficiently and effectively with our audiences – The Foundation's mission and messages are communicated to AAOMS members via AAOMS's established communications channels and to donors via the Torch and Alliance newsletters. Electronic communications channels are being explored.
- Thank and recognize donors in accurate, consistent and meaningful ways – The Foundation revisited the ways it expresses gratitude to donors. Acknowledgement letters now are augmented by thank you calls and handwritten notes, and relationship-building is a priority. The Centennial Tree, on display at AAOMS headquarters, provides a lasting and tangible tribute to the generosity of major Annual Fund donors in 2018.
- Identify, cultivate and sustain corporate donor relationships – Both OMSNIC and Treloar & Heisel significantly increased their giving to support gift-match challenges during the 2018 Annual Fund campaign, and two new corporate donors joined the roster in 2018. Sustaining these relationships and initiating conversations with other corporate entities whose missions align with the Foundation's remains a priority objective.

OMS Foundation honors its 2018 MVPs at AAOMS Annual Meeting

Torch Award

Dr. Anthony M. Spina was honored with the Foundation's prestigious Torch Award for his years of service to the Foundation board and its committees as well as his generous support as an annual and major donor and R.V. Walker Society member. Dr. Spina is a champion for the Foundation, a sought-after lecturer and published author.

"I am truly honored to be recognized by my peers," Dr. Spina said. "It's gratifying to realize my efforts did not go unnoticed, and it's a wonderful feeling to be part of this specialty and promote philanthropic ventures through the Foundation."

Research Recognition Award

Dr. Brian L. Schmidt was recognized with the Research Recognition Award for his outstanding research contributions to the specialty. He is a leader in the study of oral cancer and pain, serving as principal investigator on several clinical studies.

"OMS Foundation-supported scientists and residents experience the arduous challenges posed by biomedical science," Dr. Schmidt said. "After nearly 20 years in the game, I have mentored the scientific work of dozens of students and residents. I am profoundly thankful to OMS Foundation for supporting my work as well as that of my students and residents."

Gerald E. Hanson Outstanding Service Award

Dr. Daniel and Mrs. Adaline Klemmedson's steadfast support and significant contributions to the Foundation were honored with the Gerald E. Hanson Outstanding Service Award. Gold-level R.V. Walker Society members, the Klemmedsons also have served on numerous boards and committees that have benefited patients, peers and their community on state and regional levels. Mrs. Klemmedson is a long-standing Alliance supporter and currently serves on the Foundation's Development Committee as a consultant.

"We have been fortunate to have successful and rewarding careers and want to give back to the profession and communities that have been good to us," the Klemmedsons said. "We believe in giving back and investing in the future and are blessed to be able to give of our time, talent and treasure."

The 2018 Laskin Award honors Drs. Gary F. Bouloux, Joli C. Chou, Deepak G. Krishnan, Tara L. Aghaloo,

Nora Kahenasa, Julie Ann Smith and Helen Giannakopoulos for their article, "Is Hyaluronic Acid or Corticosteroid Superior to Lactated Ringer Solution in the Short-Term Reduction of Temporomandibular Joint Pain, and Improving Function and Quality of Life After Arthrocentesis? Parts 1 and 2."

"The Daniel Laskin award honors one of our specialty's greatest pioneers and an individual who is dedicated to scientific research," Dr. Bouloux said. "It signifies the research and writing reflect the highest standards in clinical research. Being selected from more than a thousand submissions to JOMS brings all of the authors a great sense of pride."

OMS Foundation Alliance celebrates silver anniversary

Since 1993, the OMS Foundation Alliance has provided opportunities for families, allied staff and friends of the OMS community to meet and network at AAOMS's Annual Meetings in support of the Foundation and each other. Its members also are philanthropists, giving generously to support the important work of the Foundation.

In commemoration of the Alliance's 25th anniversary, the Alliance Committee and Foundation agreed to allocate a record-breaking $172,500 in contributions from Alliance donors to support research and education in 2018. Funded programs included a Faculty Educator Development Award (FEDA) and a Student Research Training Award as well as financial support for the 2018 Resident Transitions into Practice Conference and Clinical Trials Methods Course. In addition, 14 $1,000 travel scholarships were awarded to residents attending the 2018 Clinical Trials Methods Course, and the Alliance's signature Norma L. Kelly Resident Spouse Scholarships (funded in part by OMSNIC) enabled the spouses of nine OMS residents to experience with their partners AAOMS's 100th Annual Meeting in Chicago.

The Alliance's 2018 events included daily health walks, networking breakfasts and its Silver Anniversary Annual Event, a luncheon/style show at The Signature Room at the 95th, high above Chicago's Magnificent Mile. Kelly Scholarship recipients were welcomed as guests of honor at every opportunity, laying the groundwork for lasting personal and professional relationships with those who had already "walked a mile" (or more) in their shoes.

Inspired by generous lead gifts from current and past Alliance leaders and a gift-match challenge from AAOMS, the Alliance exceeded its goal to raise $12,500 in 2018 to support the Foundation's new Global Initiative for Volunteerism and Education (GIVE) program. The funds will support five $2,500 travel stipends in 2019 for residents traveling with OMS teams to deliver humanitarian healthcare to underserved communities around the world. GIVE was enthusiastically embraced by Alliance donors, and the Alliance Committee pledged its continued support of the program in 2019.

A fitting legacy for a life well-lived

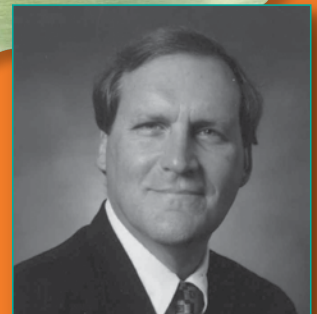

It came as no surprise to those who knew him well that, following his death in December 2017, the OMS Foundation received a $25,000 gift from the estate of Dr. James R. (Jim) Ingrassia.

Dr. Ingrassia believed in the mission of the Foundation, and his gift is an appropriate symbolic punctuation for a life well-lived. He was a courageous, kind and elegant leader of the specialty, a true and loyal friend, and a mentor and role model to many. Through his membership in the R. V. Walker Society, Dr. Ingrassia made a final, lasting gift to the specialty and offered, once again, an impeccable example for all of us to follow.

– J. David Johnson Jr., DDS

In 2018, the Southeastern Society of OMS and its members honored Dr. Ingrassia's contributions to the specialty with more than $10,000 in Tribute Gifts and a gold leaf on the AAOMS Centennial Tree.
