OMS Foundation Resident Travel Scholarships to attend the Resident Transitions into Practice Conference

February 24 – 25, 2024

Daniel M. Laskin Institute for OMS Education and Innovation, Rosemont, IL

APPLICATIONS ARE DUE JANUARY 31, 2024

The Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery Foundation has designated funds to provide scholarship assistance to OMS Residents for attendance at the 2024 Resident Transitions into Practice Conference (RTC). The OMS Foundation will grant a maximum of ten (10) individual $1,000 travel scholarships for RTC attendance. Recipients will be reimbursed (up to $1,000 each) for lodging and travel costs directly associated with the program including the conference registration fee. Scholarship funds will be disbursed upon receipt of a written summary of the awardee's experience and detailed expenses (with original receipts).

THE SCHOLARSHIP CANDIDATE MUST:

1. Be a resident enrolled in a CODA-accredited OMS program and be a current member of ROAAOMS.
2. Have support from OMS program director to allow time away to attend the conference.
3. Provide a written statement summarizing qualifications for receiving the scholarship as well as what he/she hopes to attain by attending the 2024 Resident Transitions into Practice Conference.
4. Provide a current CV.
5. Provide any supporting documentation he/she feels is important in evaluating the application.
6. Submit the completed scholarship application by Jan. 31, 2024.

CONDITIONS OF AWARD

1. Scholarship is used to attend the 2024 Resident Transitions into Practice Conference.
2. Scholarship funds apply to lodging and travel for awardee only.
3. The awardee is responsible for the balance of transportation and per diem expenses.
4. The awardee must submit a written summary of his/her experience at the RTC Conference within 30 days of attending the program. The application documents and written summary will become the property of the OMS Foundation.
5. The awardee must agree that their name and photo may be used in AAOMS and OMS Foundation print and electronic communications.
